

Everything you always wanted to know about Jewish Holidays but were afraid to ask.*

April 21-23 • OSRUI • Oconomowoc, WI

We'll explore the different ways we experience Jewish holidays through an informal program of learning, socializing and eating, and investigate how these things often go hand-in-hand when we celebrate special occasions together. Experience Shabbat, have fun and participate in Jewish learning with other members of our congregational family.

Visit congetzchaim.org for more information, or contact Karen Butterfield or the Temple office. Registration forms are available on-line and in the Temple lobby.

*Holidays like you've never seen them before.
