Meet Barbara Tischler, the Clutter Coach

Have you resolved to clear out the clutter this year but don't know where to start? Whether you are looking to organize the seemingly endless piles of paper at home or at work, the Clutter Coach will teach the basics of getting organized.

Come enjoy an evening of light noshing, socializing and learning the tricks to getting organized. Feel free to bring something you want advice on or your favorite organizing product.

Our Tzedakah this evening: Please bring an old purse you would like to donate filled with toiletries, snacks, feminine products, etc. We will be collecting the purses and donating them to a women's shelter. (If you can't fill a purse bring a purse or any of the above mentioned and we will fill it)
