Jellyfish

Israeli co-directors Etgar Keret and Shira Geffen's ensemble comedy drama Meduzot (aka Jellyfish, 2007) weaves together multiple seriocomic tales of intersecting lives, set against the deep azure backdrop of Middle Eastern seascapes. Batya is a young woman employed as a caterer, whose firm places strongest emphasis on weddings. Present at a wedding reception for Michael and Keren (where the gorgeous bride breaks a leg while attempting to escape from a locked toilet) is a Filipino caregiver named Joy, who is saddled with an array of grouchy, snotty elderly clients who make verbal barbs in Hebrew that she cannot understand. In another sub-story, Malka, one of Joy's octogenarian clients gripes and moans about her actress daughter's participation in an "experimental" version of Hamlet.

Following the film, Congregant Paul Heinz will lead a brief discussion. A writer, musician and film buff, Paul is also a member of the Executive Board.

Please RSVP to Paul Heinz at paulheinz6@gmail.com, or call the synagogue office at 630.627.3912.

IF YOU NEED A RIDE, please contact the synagogue office by February 16th.
