

Life Tree Cinema: Perspectives on the Jewish Experience Proudly Presents- classic Jewish film stars

Cactus Flower

Thursday, February 28 at 7:00 PM
in the Social Hall

Starring Walter Matthau, Goldie Hawn (and Ingrid Bergman), Cactus Flower is a comedy about a middle-aged dentist, his nurse, and his 21-year-old mistress. He claims he's married, because he doesn't want to get involved, but he DOES get involved and can't figure out how to confess his deception. He persuades the nurse to pretend to be his wife, but then the girl becomes sympathetic to the poor, abandoned wife. According to Roger Ebert, the chemistry works and the audience laughs under their breath in order not to miss the lines.

Discussion will be led by writer, musician and film buff, Paul Heinz.

Please RSVP to Paul at paulheinz6@gmail.com or call the office at (630) 627- 3912.

If you need a ride, please call the office by February 22nd.

Life Tree Cinema is a collaboration between the Library Committee and the Lifelong Learning Committee