Zero Motivation

Satiric, surreal, unexpected and at times wildly funny, Zero Motivation is a savage black comedy that eviscerates an unexpected target: the Israeli army, officially known as the IDF. Whatever your image of the Israel Defense Forces is, heroic or otherwise, it's not what you're going to see here. Instead of dealing with frontline troops or a grueling combat situation, this film takes you behind the scenes in a human resources office on a remote military base where women's work includes serving coffee and snacks to officers and filling positions like Postal NCO and Paper and Shredding NCO. As the title indicates, these soldiers do not work and play well together, and they are not happy in their work. Winner of six Israeli Oscars.

Following the film, Congregant Paul Heinz will lead a brief discussion. A writer, musician and film buff, Paul is also a member of the Executive Board.

Please RSVP to Paul Heinz at paulheinz6@gmail.com, or call the synagogue office at 630.627.3912.

IF YOU NEED A RIDE, please contact the synagogue office by March 16th.
